

Challenge Coin Rules

Note: A "Coin Check" consists of a Challenge and a Response.

Rules

The challenge is initiated by drawing your coin, holding it in the air by whatever means possible and state, scream, shout or otherwise verbally acknowledge that you are initiating a coin check. Another, but less vocal method is to firmly place it on the bar, table, or floor (this should produce an audible noise which can be easily heard by those being challenged, but try not to leave a permanent imprint.) If you accidentally drop your coin and it makes an audible sound upon impact, then you have just "accidentally" a coin check. (This is called paying the price for improper care of your coin.)

The response consists of all those persons being challenged drawing their coin in a like manner.

If you are challenged and are unable to properly respond, you must buy a round of drinks for the challenger and the group being challenged.

If everyone being challenged responds in the correct manner, the challenger must buy a round of drinks for all those people they challenged.

Failure to buy a round of drinks is a despicable crime and will require that you turn-in your Coin to the issuing agency.

When-Where

Coin checks are permitted, ANY TIME, ANY PLACE.

Exceptions

There are no exceptions to the rules. They apply to those clothed or unclothed. At the time of the challenge you are permitted one step and an arms reach to locate your coin. If you still cannot reach it — SORRY ABOUT THAT!
